>OK folks, the one you've all been waiting for. The Daphne extra-special video.
>First a word about it. This video was NOT custom-made for the group, as it came about before the agreement to possibly fund such a thing. But it was made by special request and cost considerably more than what you have thus far been viewing courtesy of me and the n0rp friends. with that in mind, the group has paid $120 towards the cost of the video. That's quite a bargain on a per-person basis.
>I won't spoil you with details. Just download and watch it, making sure you have at least an hour of free time. Probably two hours since you'll want to run it slow or keep backing up in those 'no she didn't just.....' moments.

“The Daphne Extra Special Video”

“it was made by special request”

“the group has paid $120 towards the cost”

Holy cow! I think i'm dreaming and i will realize it isn't true when i wake up.

I always thought the yvm girls were from Russia or from some other former soviet union republic, but now after it was possible to hear Daphne talk, it looks like she speaks Dutch/Flemish.

Thank you very much for the video!

YVM “Young Video Models” “She Speaks Dutch Flemish”

I'm still excited from that movie, but at the same time i have a creepy feeling that it will be a disaster for Daphne. I could care less about the adults running the show, but poor Daphne's life will certainly become seriously derailed during the near future :(

I'm afraid that when yvm gets shut down by authorities, they will follow the money trail and will go after the paying customers. It could harm even us if the account usage is not well planned, it could harm valya supplier. At minimum, it will most likely cause that all directly or indirectly involved accounts get frozen.

well, sentiments aside, here is what i would like to see on the next vid :)

I would love to see a perfect pussy closeups - clit, hymen, pee hole. so far, Daphne was not spreading skilfully because she did not see the same what camcorder did. My suggestion is to place an external monitor into the room, hooked with the camcorder, so that Daphne can see the same picture as what is being recorded. Then she maybe becomes more interested in the pussy exploration and possibly reveals all the nooks which so far remained unseen :)

Oh, and keep her dirty! Don't wash her pussy a day (or better two), so that there are all those white juicy products of vaginal self cleaning. She can then sponge it down while watching on monitor suggested above.

New information from Belgium Edit

by INTERPOL Anders Persson on 13/07/2006 23:21:36

Hi all, this I just received this message from our colleagues in Belgium. Stephan Put (Our Belgium colleague who works with Eric and Yves Goethals) will get in contact with Dirk in the Netherlands so they can update each other about what has been done so far.
Regards Anders

Hi Anders,
We have listened at the videos and found out that the language wich is spoken is in fact is Dutch from Belgium spoken in the west part of it more specific the West Flanders.
We hear a girl saying something about 'een stoel' (a chair) and we think it is situated in region of the sea.
We'll further investigate the case and are gone sent over snapshot of the faces to the local policeforces as soon as possible.

We will keep you in touch.

greetings
Eric and Stephan

USENET - P2P

Possibly. But perhaps we attribute too much attention being paid by LEA. I know for a fact that some of the folks posting in those open groups have minimal security - some have none at all. The same thing applies to p2p. And yet the posting continues.

Maybe LEA are actually inundated with stuff - the "problem" is just too big to handle, especially as by and large, the LEA's all continue to act separately. Also, 99.9% of the stuff that's posted is years old, so they have to sift through 1,000's of posts to find anything new, which is surely what they would be mainly interested in.

We know that Daphne was investigated once, but why? Because she talked too much at school. It wasn't through investigation of YVM. I suspect that even when they investigated her, they didn't actually see the films she had made at that point in time. Even the "non nude" ones would have been sufficient to have required intervention by the social services.

We should never under-estimate the enemy, but perhaps we are guilty of over-estimating them. By and large, the LEA's record on stopping the distribution of child porn has been pitiful.

Let's just hope and pray that I am right - for Daphne's sake.

Pedopornografia. Ten years entrepreneur sex online

It arrived escorted by four police officers prison Sergio Marzola. Impassibile, with the handcuffs wrists, he climbed the stairs and entered nell'aula pending the verdict of the court. Perhaps in those moments will be rethought to those girls who paid for posing nude in front of his camera. Girls innocent with a childhood stained by those filmi that he himself ran and distributed among world. Perhaps those small, all between 7 and 14 years at the material time, be able to forgive. Certainly did not want to discount the gip Silvia Best, who yesterday accepted full blame for the plant pm Filippo Di Benedetto and Nicola Proto and condemned the Ferrara 43enne to 10 years' imprisonment (15 were expected, but thanks to choice of rite shortened the penalty was reduced to one third).

At imprisonment plus a provisional basis for civil parties: 40mila for each of two Belgian girls exploited and 10 thousand for their mother. The investigation was game in August 2006 over its two small (now 13 and 14 years, also suffers from a disorder), driven to shoot a video containing child pornography with his father. Interpol was able to trace the identity of man taken in the movie and from there headed investigations in Italy and around strinsero Sergio Marzola.

Marzola was arrested by the mobile team in August two years ago, in his apartment because of Peschiere Old, in the center of Ferrara. By itself had already suitcases ready for expatriation and reach a safe place in Ukraine; homemade investigators - as well as a large amount of material hard - have also found considerable sum of 68mila euros in cash.
